The Only Democratic Paper in the County

CRUSHED BY
A LOG.Ed. Goss Meets an Awful
Death.

HEAD CRUSHED

And Body Mangled Neath
the Weight.

Mr. Ed. Goss, one of the best known farmers and teamsters in Hocking County, was almost instantly killed, Monday evening, by being caught under some logs he was unloading at Kessler's factory, on Gallagher Avenue.

Mr. Goss, along with others, had driven his team up to the unloading place, and had placed his skids preparatory to rolling the logs down toward the saw mill. He stepped between the skids to unfasten the chain that held the load, and as the chain loosened three of the logs rolled off. The first two merely struck the skids and rolled on, knocking Goss down in their course. The third one however, was only ten feet long, and would not reach the skids, falling directly between them. It apparently landed on his face and the upper part of his body. The entire front of the head was crushed. Dr. Cherrington, who was near the scene, hastened to his assistance, but the unfortunate man lived only a few minutes.

Ed. Goss had probably as wide an acquaintance as any man living in this section, having spent all his life in the neighborhood. He had years of experience in lumber-hauling, and his sad death is only another instance of how familiar one may grow with a dangerous job. The load that killed him was a large one, such as he was accustomed to handle.

Mr. Goss leaves a wife and several children, who have the sincere sympathy of the entire community.

Hocking County Fair.

August 22, 23, 24 and 25th is the date of the Hocking County Fair. Lovers of good racing will have an opportunity to see good races each day of the fair, as the fair managers have put up excellent purses and in return have been able to secure a long list of good steppers that will "go some." There will be many new features and exhibitions on the grounds, which seldom grace fair of this kind.

The outlook is very pleasing for a large display of machinery, fine poultry, stock of all kinds; and the Art hall promises to be well filled with displays of every description.

The managers of the fair board should have the co-operation of every citizen in the county to make this the most successful fair in the history of Hocking county.

FREE RIDE HOME

Seems to be the Joy of This Miscreant.

That the leniency of the law failed of its effect in one recent instance was proved Saturday evening, in the person of Orley Guess, who lives in the country south-east of Logan, about six miles. Guess was discharged only a few weeks ago after serving thirty days in the county jail for unlawfully unhitching and removing a horse. He was confined in jail for some time before his trial in the Common Pleas Court, and on representations to Judge George E. Martin, that he was the only support of his aged and widowed mother, and had already been confined for a long while, he was let off with merely a jail sentence.

Saturday evening, at about eight o'clock, the young man helped himself to another rig from the hitch-yard of Wellman, Steinman, and Yontz, and drove as far as Smith Chapel, where, according to his usual practice, he turned the horse loose. He slept in Clem Woodruff's barn till daylight, and arrived home about half an hour previous to the appearance there of Marshal Allen, who had procured a warrant for him on the previous evening. The horse and buggy belong to Mr. Alpha Gesells, who swore an affidavit against Guess later.

Guess confessed his guilt before Mayor Dollison, and was taken to the Probate Court for trial, Tuesday, where a plea of guilty was entered to the charge. He was sentenced to thirty days in the Columbus Work-House, and to pay a fine of twenty-five dollars and the costs. It is thought that a dose of this may serve to convince the gentleman of the error of his ways.

Mr. John Sloughton, of Rockbridge, was in Logan on business, Wednesday.

GOVERNOR HARRIS

Remains Silent and Smiles
On.

Warden O. P. Gould, of the Ohio penitentiary, called to pay his respects to Governor Harris Friday afternoon, and report says he is making an effort to remain at the head of that institution. At the last meeting of the board Price Russell, of Wayne county, was elected warden, his appointment to become effective August 1. The board made the change at the request of Governor Pattison, but it is now said an effort will be made to dispose of Russell by having the board refuse to approve the minutes of the meeting at which Mr. Russell was elected warden. This would, of course, dispose of the secretary as well, as he was elected at the same meeting. It is understood that Frank Cook, who was deposed as secretary, is not a candidate for the place again.

Governor Harris does not intend to borrow any trouble. He is not going to cross any bridge until he comes to it, and whether he will then burn it behind him, remains to be seen. He says he is not worrying any about an extra session of the legislature, but will do his duty in the matter if the courts should knock out many of the laws on the ground that they were not presented in fact to Governor Pattison for his signature.

Senators Foraker and Dick and General Grosvenor, according to Washington advices, appear to be a little excited over this matter, and it is said the two senators are anxious also to have Governor Harris appoint a lieutenant governor. General Grosvenor, however, maintains that Harris is simply acting governor, and that if he were to resign as lieutenant governor, James M. Williams, a Democrat, who is president of the senate, would succeed to the executive chair.

A Washington dispatch further discussing this matter says:

The two senators and other Ohioans here subscribe to the old saw that nothing in this life is certain but death and taxes, and argue that the Republicans must take no chances in view of the fact that General Harris is now 71 years of age. The party leaders in Washington have been making some splendid political plans since the death of Governor Pattison, and all of them might prove abortive should Senator Williams, a Democrat, instead of a good Republican, be next in line for the chief magistracy.

If Governor Harris can be prevailed upon to take the United States senators' view of the situation, there is no doubt the supreme court will be asked to determine whether or not he acted within his rights. General Harris has not yet been consulted, but now that the late governor's funeral has taken place, the Republican leaders here will have no further delicacy about getting in touch with him. In this connection they have observed with anything but supreme joy that Attorney General Wade Ellis, whom they consider altogether too ambitious for a young man, has been in close communication with the governor, and this has caused them to wonder how much influence he is going to exert with him in this and other matters. Senator Dick continues to receive applications by telegraph and mail for indorsement from office seekers and Senator Foraker has also begun to hear from them.

THE AFTERMATH

Quiet Reigns at the Pattison Home.

Milford, Ohio, June 22.—Quiet settled down upon Promont, the home of the late Governor John M. Pattison, after the crowds had departed from the funeral on Thursday afternoon, and the widow was left to mourn with her children—young John Pattison, and Misses Aletha and Ernestine—and other members of the family who remained for the night.

George Williams, a brother of Mrs. Pattison, stated yesterday that the crowd was most orderly and was respectful to the memory of Governor Pattison, not one single case of vandalism, broken trees or shrubbery having been reported.

The family wishes to return thanks to Colonel Hake and his command; to Chief Paul Millikin, of the Cincinnati police force, who detailed officers of experience to handle the crowds, and also to the officers themselves.

The unpretentious family monument will mark the place where Governor John T. Pattison rests in Greenlawn, with others of his family passed away before. No massive shaft in commemoration will be raised by the family, owing to the Governor's detestation of ostentation.

A marble grave mark bearing the name of the Governor will be placed at the head of his resting place, the same kind of stone that marks the graves of his first wife and child.

Whether the widow and family will continue to live at Promont is a matter of conjecture, as they have not as yet made any plans. There is at present no male member of the family excepting the son, John Pattison, and he will be at home for three months on his vacation from Harvard College. When he leaves to resume his studies the mother and two daughters may decide to remove from Promont.

On Thursday night Dr. William Williams and wife and George Williams and wife, brothers of Mrs. Pattison, remained at Promont, but came to the city this morning.

Mrs. Etta Phillips is visiting in Union Furnace.

MEETING

Anti - Spitting Ordinance Passed.

TAX LEVY FOR 1906

Is Passed, and Bunch of Bills Allowed.

The city fathers disposed of a good grist of business at their regular meeting, Tuesday evening, all the members being present.

The ordinance to license shows, exhibitions and other performances was read for the third time, and finally adopted as read. It provides for a license fee varying from one to twenty-five dollars per day, in the discretion of the Mayor, and fixes the penalty at five to fifty dollars.

Col. Weldy introduced a resolution calling upon Mayor Dollison for the strict enforcement of the ordinance already on the books, regulating the use of fireworks on the Fourth of July. The Mayor produced a copy of the proclamation relative to this matter issued by him Tuesday, and read it to the Council. It prohibits absolutely the use of cannon-crackers and the vexatious dynamite or "explosive" canes. The resolution was adopted, and it is understood that this regulation will be enforced.

An ordinance for the abatement of certain public nuisances was introduced by Mr. Lanning. It is designed to abolish the pernicious habit of spitting on the sidewalk, and provides for a penalty of one to five dollars for violations. Col. Weldy took the floor and stated that he wished to introduce, as a substitute for this ordinance, one making it a misdemeanor, punishable by fine and imprisonment, for ladies to appear on the street with their skirts less than two inches from the ground. He also voiced his belief that the anti-spitting law, if passed, would be a dead letter, and asserted that similar provisions in other places, notably Lancaster and Columbus, have proved failures.

Mr. Thurness moved to suspend the rules and place the ordinance on its final passage. Mr. Lanning, in seconding this motion, said that the Columbus and Lancaster ordinance are enforced, and declared it a shame and a disgrace for a progressive town to permit its sidewalks to be splattered and frescoed as they are. He instanced the condition of the new cement pavement around the Rempel Bank. After some discussion of the merits of the ordinance, carried on for the most part by Messrs Weldy and Thurness, a vote was taken, and it was passed, four to two, Weldy and Shaw dissenting.

An ordinance to levy taxes for municipal purposes for the year 1906, was introduced by Mr. Angle. It apportions the levy as follows:

General Expense,	2 71 mills
Service Fund,	5.71 mills
Health Fund,	1.00 mills
Safety Fund,	.60 mills
Sinking Fund,	7.61 mills
Public Library,	.40 mills
Total,	18.00 mills

Under a suspension of the rules, the ordinance was passed forthwith.

The usual grist of bills were favorably reported by the Ways and Means Committee, and allowed, including three accounts for labor on the streets done recently, under the supervision of Street Commissioner Savey. The bill of the Citizens' Electric Light Company for May, amounting to $308.82, was also reported by the committee without recommendation, having been referred back to them at the previous meeting. A motion by Mr. Lanning to again refer the bill to the committee was lost, and it was finally allowed.

Col. Weldy moved that the Street Committee be authorized to act in the matter of repairing the alley from Main to Hunter Street, passing Gage's Livery, and the gutter on the Rempel Bank side of Market Street. The motion was afterwards enlarged to include also the alley from Main to Second, passing Oliver's Livery, and the alley by the I. O. O. F. Building, and was carried as enlarged.

Mr. James reported that the residents of North Orchard Street are clamoring for extension of the sanitary sewer, and the matter was referred to the Sewer Committee with power to act.

The subject of sidewalks came in for discussion again. Several locations were mentioned, and the committee authorized to go ahead and pave for the delinquents, on all of whom notices have been often served.

Mr. Lanning registered a vigorous kick on the practice of allowing the immense loads of clay furnished to the Logan Clay Product Company to be hauled over the eastern paved portion of Main Street. He stated that the loads average 8000 pounds, and many of them run over 9000 pounds; that about fifty such loads per day pass over the pavement in question, and some of them on narrow-tired wagons; and gave it as his opinion that the paving, under such wear as this, will not last until it is paid for. The city solicitor was requested to prepare an ordinance to regulate both the loads and the width of tires.

Col. Weldy, as Chairman of the Fire Department Committee, reported with much satisfaction that the doors at the engine-house are finally completed, and the department is just waiting for a fire.

Mr. Thurness recommended some improvement at the north end of Walnut Street, and the establishment of grades in the Gompf Addition. This latter matter was well discussed, and the street committee having been already authorized to act, were further instructed along that line. The committee have investigated the matter, but have been deterred heretofore by the difference of opinion among the residents in the addition, the immense difficulty of establishing a just and permanent grade that will give fair drainage, and the great cost of the work.

The committee on public property reported that they have been unable to inspect any models for the city work-house, and will very likely proceed to erect the institution in accordance with their own plans as heretofore outlined.

Mr. Weldy informed the council that he had secured a competent engineer to prepare preliminary plans and specifications for the municipal electric light plant. This suggested a long discussion relative to the advisability on consolidating the lighting plant and the water works, and placing both somewhere above the town.

No further nominations or proceedings were had in the matter of the appointment of a night policeman. The clerk was instructed to enter a record of Mr. Krishbaum's appointment until next meeting night. After some other discussion relative to minor matters, a motion to adjourn was carried.

2277 Saloons Knocked Out

In 83 of the 88 counties of the state the $1000 liquor tax has reduced the number of saloons from 7716 to 5459, a decrease of 2257. All but Hamilton, Cuyahoga, Huron, Mahoning and Lake counties are included in the 83 that have reported to Auditor of State Guilbert.

Last June 12,934 saloons in the state paid the tax. If the ratio of decrease of 29.2 per cent, established by the 83 counties hold good the total saloons wiped out will number 3750. The 9184 saloons left would pay a tax of $9,184,000 as against $4,525,900 paid under the $350 tax of one year ago.

Mr. Dick Kennard arrived here Tuesday evening, in company with his father, G. H. Kennard, who met him that day in Columbus. Dick left Logan last fall with his brother Charlie and Harley Jadin, for Los Angeles, California. For some time the three have been in Salt Lake City. Dick expects to return to Los Angeles next fall.

The new camp of the Modern Woodmen of America will be organized here July 6th, with a large class of charter members. Ohio Camp with their team and officers of Columbus, will be here to exemplify the mysteries of Woodcraft.

Mrs. G. W. Beery and daughter, Miss Blanche, and Miss Josephine Bowen, of Union Furnace, were in Logan on Tuesday to attend the Eastern Star's picnic at the residence of Mrs. Chas. Reetenwald.

Mrs. Lawrence Gano left yesterday for Nelsonville, where her home will be for the present. Mr. Gano spent Sunday here, and their goods were shipped on Monday.
